

Haralson

Georgia KIDS COUNT Data Snapshot Birth to 21

	Most Recent Year	County Rate	Georgia Rate	Rank in Georgia	County Compared to Georgia
Health and Safety
Low Birthweight (percent)	2011	9.4	9.4	69
Teen Births, ages 15-19 (per 1,000)	2011	69.6	37.9	131
Child Abuse and Neglect (per 1,000)	2012	17.3	6.9	146
Family and Economic Well-Being
Child poverty (percent)	2012	31.9	27.3	51
Teens Not in School and Not Working, ages 16-19* (percent)	2012	16.2	11.1	113
Children Whose Parents Lack Secure Employment* (percent)	2012	11.0	8.2	93
Education
3 rd Grade Reading CRCT (percent)	2012	91.8	94.5	140
Teens Graduating High School On Time (percent)	2012	62.4	69.7	156
Babies Born to Mothers with Less Than High School Education (percent)	2011	20.7	18.4	80

Note: The KIDS COUNT County Profile contains most recent data for all Georgia KIDS COUNT indicators. The complete county profile and indicator definitions are at gafcp.org/kidscount. These nine indicators are a subset of the KIDS COUNT indicators and are selected to provide an overview of status of children and families. Ranks are based on 159 counties; CRCT is out of 180 school systems and Teens Graduating High School on Time rank is out of 177 school systems.

*Data are from five-year estimates, U.S. Census, American Community Survey.

-  Indicates that the county is doing 10% or better than the state mean
-  Indicates that the county is within 10% better to 10% worse of the state mean
-  Indicates that the county is more than 10% worse than the state mean

We connect, communicate, and count what matters to communities.